

What Do You Want on Your Pizza?

The neighborhood pizza place requires
quick decision-making
and a twenty-minute wait.

Life in the fast lane
isn't so easy.
It tosses you up in the air
And flattens you at times.

A thin crust plain slice with no extra toppings
is a simple solution
without
further expectations
and limited risk.
The ordinariness
Wipes away easily.

A thick crust
loaded with pepperoni
extra cheese
anchovies
mushrooms
peppers
complicates
matters.
It's messy
with a lot of choices
spilling
over the edge
of the paper plate
all at one time.
It's life
at its messiest.

A veggie pizza
loaded
with Vitamin B and C
is the must-do
for the health nut
unable to let go
once in a blue moon
and rationalize
the ups and downs
of the scale.

Life's
challenges
are in the choices
on the menu
at a pizza place.
